

CHAPTER 119.

[Published March 25, 1870.]

AN ACT to provide for levying and collecting a state tax for the year 1870.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amount of state
tax to be levied.

SECTION 1. There is hereby levied upon all the taxable property of the state, a state tax for the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, of four hundred and eighty thousand dollars, in addition to the amount authorized to be levied by existing laws. Said tax shall be apportioned among, and assessed upon the several counties of the state and collected and paid into the state treasury as provided by law. The same shall be apportioned by the secretary of state, on or before the second Monday in October next, and the amount apportioned to any county shall be certified by the secretary of state to the clerk of the board of supervisors of such county as soon as may be after the apportionment, and the said clerk shall apportion the same among and certify the same to the several towns, cities and incorporated villages thereof, according to law, and the amount so apportioned shall be collected and paid over according to law.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 17, 1870.
